

Communication and Language This half term we will be: - Focusing on our listening skills in small groups - Listening to familiar stories with increasing attention span - Retelling past events in the correct order - Understanding how and why questions.	Mathematics This half term we will be: - Beginning to recognise numerals up to 5 - Subitising amounts to 4 objects - Linking numerals to amounts up to 5 - Separating groups of up to 4 objects in different ways Looking at colour patterns	Literacy This half term we will be: - Thinking about key characters in the stories we read - Learning that print is read from left to right - Using vocabulary from stories in our play	Physical Development This half term we will be: - Manipulating a range of different tools with one hand - Using tools to change materials - Imitating writing by making continuous lines or shapes and symbols - Attempting to write our names with lines, circles and curves.
Personal, Social and Emotional Development This half term we will be: - becoming increasingly cooperative with peers and understanding the needs of others - Enjoying a sense of belonging by taking part in daily tasks - Talking about how others might feel and responding appropriately 	Understanding the World This half term we will be: - Talking about the changes we see in nature - Growing caterpillars into butterflies-going into the Summer Term - Thinking about why we celebrate Easter - Talking about why our Mums are so special to us	Expressive Arts and Design This half term we will be: - Giving meaning to the things we draw and write - Using lines, curves and shapes in our drawing and painting - Making sounds copying a rhythm and keeping a steady beat	Where are we going to go? What are we going to see?  - We are very lucky to be invited to Spennymoor Library to help celebrate World Book Day. - We plan to repeat our Autumn walk and this time, spot the signs of Spring.

Parent Curriculum Overview for Spring Term 2

